

Lab #5

Date:

Topic: Interrelation of organisms

Objective: To study the interrelationship between various organisms on the school campus and to construct a food web of those organisms observed.

Materials: pen, pencil, school campus (place), organisms.

Procedure:

1. Select an area around the school campus.
2. Record the names of at least 10 organisms observed.
3. In a table state the feeder type for each organism and what the organism was seen doing.
4. Construct a food web of the organisms observed in order to explain the importance of interrelationship of organism in an ecosystem.

Lab #5

Date:

Topic: Interrelation of organisms

Objective: To study the interrelationship between various organisms on the school campus and to construct a food web of those organisms observed.

Materials: pen, pencil, school campus (place), organisms.

Procedure:

1. Select an area around the school campus.
2. Record the names of at least 10 organisms observed.
3. In a table state the feeder type for each organism and what the organism was seen doing.
4. Construct a food web of the organisms observed in order to explain the importance of interrelationship of organism in an ecosystem.